Carol Scott Named Marin County REALTOR® of the Year

Carol Scott of Bradley Real Estate in San Rafael was named REALTOR® of the Year today by the Marin Association of REALTORS® at their 92nd annual awards luncheon and installation of officers and directors at the Embassy Suites Hotel in San Rafael.

The award is presented annually to an individual who represents the standards of judgment, high principles, high ethical standards, upstanding loyalty and devotion to the advancement and success of the association.

LeFrancis Arnold, president of the California Association of REALTORS®, installed David Smadbeck as 2012 president of the Marin Association of REALTORS®. Smadbeck is a REALTOR® with Coldwell Banker in Greenbrae.

About Carol Scott

Scott joined the Marin Association of REALTORS® in 1991 and earned the Senior's Real Estate Specialist (SRES) designation. She served on MAR's Board of Directors in 2003 and 2004 and continues to serve on MAR's Professional Standards Committee. Scott also served on MAR's Grievance, MLS Technology and Strategic Planning Committees.

Prior to working in real estate, Scott served as a legal secretary/assistant. She has been a member of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce since 1992 and is a member of the San Rafael Harbor Rotary Club.

Other MAR Awards Announced

Stevens Manning of Manning Mortgage Associates, Inc. in San Rafael was named Affiliate of the Year; Kay Moore of Coldwell Banker in Greenbrae received the Distinguished Service Award; Margaret Deedy of Coldwell Banker in Greenbrae and Jonathan Marks of Alain Pinel in Corte Madera received the association's Making a Difference Award.
